

HOW MUCH?

The ache is going away
So many years spent to beg
My Pride's left
Feel like a wreck

How much do you worth?
How much do I worth?

You can't take an eye on me
The Twinckles just next to me
They seem, they stay unreachable
No trace of any help

How much do you worth?
How much do I worth?
Your doors remain closed
Outside it's my home

How much do you worth?
How much do I worth?
Your doors remain closed
Outside it's my home

It seems, it remains no chance
